LOGLINE

In a society where almost everybody farts backwards, six stubborn, proper-farting citizens pay a harsh price for being resolute to staying true to their own values.

SYNOPSIS

Shown through three different threads, 'Snow White Dies at the End' is a dark comedy / drama about three groups of people whose paths cross and impact each other – a love thread about two socially challenged misfits from the fringes of the society (a hikikomori and an Asperger's), a friendship thread about three childhood friends (an ad man, a video store clerk, and a corner shop philosopher), now in their mid-30s, who were born too late for their own values, and a commitment thread about a gynecologist who promised her best friend on her deathbed that she would look after her junkie teenage son after her death.

They all struggle to preserve their lives as they were before the world turned dehumanized by virtual communication and by the aggressive encroachment of politics, technology and media upon our existence.

Verica Nedeska Trajkova as SNOW WHITE

Decades of excellence, but no Snow White in the resume. We had to right the wrong.

Natasha Petrovic as MAYA

A Berlinale Shooting Star and an extraordinary international career since.

David Janakiev as IGOR

A Lee Strasberg Institute graduate in his debut feature film role.

Valentin Kostadinovski as BOBBY

A first class comedian in his first role out of his comfort zone.

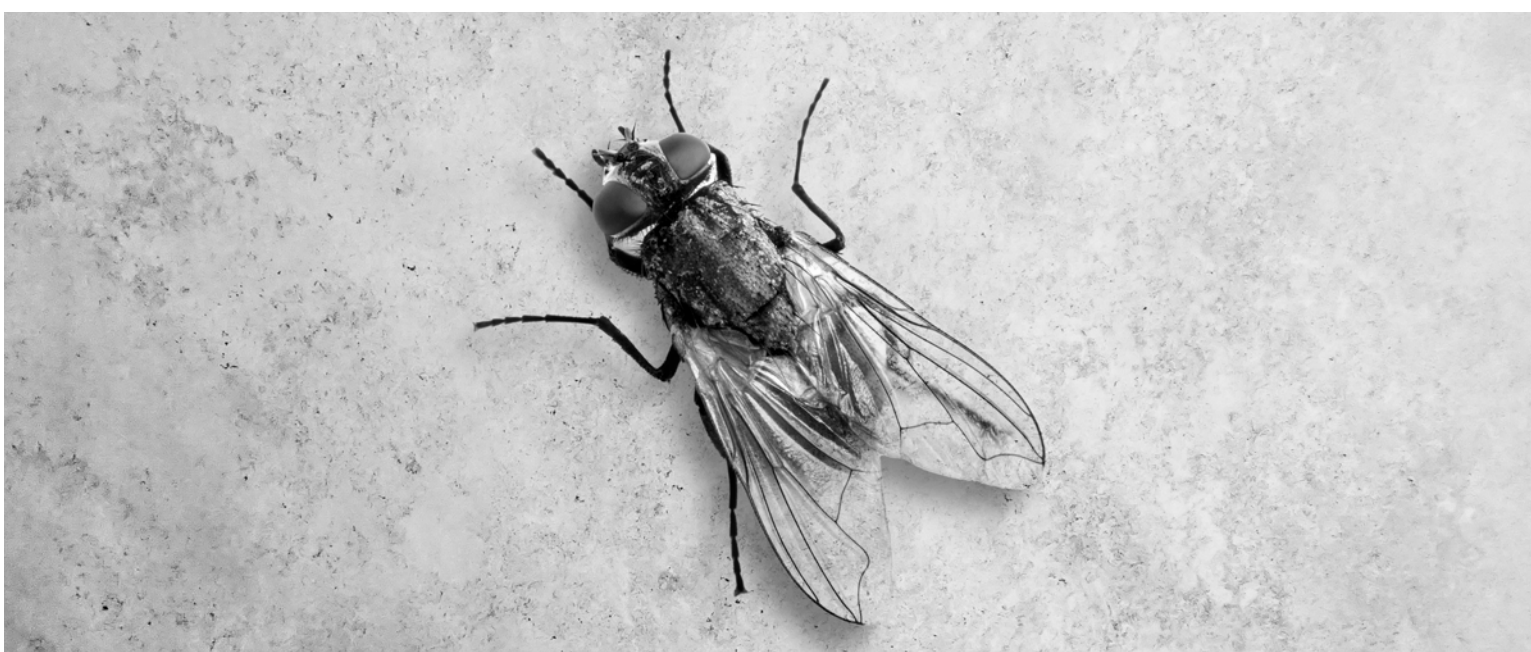

Sashko Kocev as GORAZD
A celebrity who is always five minutes early.

Deniz Abdula as DEYAN
Both a neighborhood legend and a regional TV star.

Ivica Dimitrijevic as NIKOLA
The kindest renaissance man. An actor, musician, director, and amazing human being.

Milica as HERSELF
Can walk on ceilings.

DIRECTOR

KRISTIJAN RISTESKI

'Snow White...' is Kristijan Risteski's debut feature. His short 'Remain Upright!!' premiered at the Sarajevo Film Festival, and was presented at more than twenty other festivals – Palm Springs International ShortFest, San Francisco International Film Festival, Melbourne International Film Festival, and Brussels Short Film Festival.

Selected filmography:

- Remain Upright!! (short)
- Cut Here (short)
- I Want to be a Basketball Player (TV series for children)
- Y2K (documentary TV series)
- Amaro, ma non troppo (medium-length TV feature)

"We live in a world that is worse than the world in which our parents lived. Technology didn't give us more good than crap. The so called prosperity brought opulence to few and poverty to many. Democracy brought more corruption than justice. Abundance of information didn't make us more profound but rather shallow. Our film is a story of human kindness, decency, integrity and joie de vivre. It aims to question the contemporary societies, and especially their ethics and capacity for sound judgement."
